Avon Grove Library offers AARP Free Tax Assistance & Return Preparation

The Avon Grove Library, 117 Rosehill Ave, West Grove PA has partnered with the AARP Foundation Tax-Aide to offer help with federal, state and local personal income tax returns on Wednesdays February 3 through April 13. Appointments are available at the library between the hours of 9am and 2:30pm. You must have an appointment to participate. Stop by the library to sign up or call 610-869-2004. You do not need to be a senior citizen or a member of AARP to participate.

The AARP Tax Aide Program provides free, confidential face to face assistance at senior centers, community centers, libraries and other convenient locations. Volunteers are trained and certified in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service to prepare personal income tax returns that provide taxpayers with the maximum allowable credits and other benefits. This Program is the nation's largest provider of free tax assistance and return preparation services with over 35,000 volunteers at more than 5000 sites who helped over 2.6 million taxpayers in 2015.

For more information and the specifics you will need to bring to the appointment, please refer to the Avon Grove Library website avongrovelibrary.org
