“Saving for College” to Help Parents and Students Prepare for the Future

WEST GROVE, Pa. – August 19, 2015 – What can people do to meet the expenses of the college years? Avon Grove Library helps answer this question with the free program “Saving for College” on Tuesday, September 1 at 7 p.m.

Presented by Krista Finegan, a local financial advisor with Morgan Stanley, this session will teach parents and students ways to plan for the future. “Saving for College” is not a sales presentation, but rather a chance to get basic information and ask questions.

“This is a great opportunity for parents looking to continue their children’s education,” said Lori Schwabenbauer, director of Avon Grove Library. “I’m excited to bring Krista here, because the library is committed to providing classes on important topics like this to improve the lives of our customers.”

Avon Grove Library and Morgan Stanley are also teaming up to offer other free financial seminars, including “Retirement Planning” on Tuesday, September 29 at 7 p.m.

The library is located at 117 Rosehill Avenue in the West Grove Borough Building (610-869-2004, www.avongrovelibrary.org). All seminars will be held in the Public Meeting Room.

Avon Grove Library is a vital educational institution, providing equal opportunity for self-directed learning, research assistance and instruction, and enriching experiences for over 30,000 students of all ages in southern Chester County. The library is a member of the Chester County Library System.
