Contact: Laura Collins
610-869-2004 /lcollins@ccls.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

"GET IN THE GAME – Read!"

West Grove, Pa., May 15, 2016 –Teens and tweens can exercise both body and mind with a variety of events at Avon Grove Library throughout the summer.

The "Get in the Game: READ!" Summer Reading Program is free to join, and runs from June 11 through August 20. Teens can sign up and participate by reading books to earn prizes. Additionally, students entering sixth through twelfth grades may register to enjoy a variety of fun-filled programs throughout the summer.

Events planned for this summer include the Chocolate Olympics, Pizza Making and Movie Night, Totally Trivia Day, Field Night Fun, Summer Stylin' Jewelry Jam, Paint Party, Sharpie Marker Fun, and much more. Additionally, tweens and teens will have the opportunity to earn service hours by volunteering at Volunteer Drop-In Days, Books and Breakfast events, Read Aloud Book Club, and Goddard Park Community Garden Meet Up. Some programs require a materials fee. To find out more www.avongrovelibrary.org/teens/teen-programming.

Signups start June 11 for Summer Reading and all the programs listed above. Teens who complete the reading challenge can win up to five prizes, including tickets to the PA Renaissance Faire, Timber Lanes Bowling, or Blue Rocks Minor League Baseball; ear buds; water bottles; free DVD rentals; and much more! Additionally, for every reading challenge completed, teens will have an opportunity to enter to win one of four prize baskets.

Avon Grove Library is a vital educational institution, providing equal opportunity for self-directed learning, research assistance and instruction, and enriching experiences for over 30,000 people of all ages in southern Chester County. The library is a member of the Chester County Library System.

###